Asia Innovatory Management School offers new range of qualifications

Cambridge International Centre status awarded to local school.

Asia Innovatory Management School has been awarded International Centre status by University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE). Asia Innovatory Management School will now offer a range of internationally accepted qualifications including Cambridge's ICT Starters and the Cambridge International Diploma for Teaching with ICT.

University of Cambridge International Examinations (CIE) is the world's largest provider of international qualifications for 14-19 year olds. CIE offers a broad range of qualifications, created for an international audience. CIE's qualifications include Cambridge IGCSE and International A/AS Level. CIE qualifications are taken in 150 countries and recognised by universities, educational providers and employers across the world.

Ann Puntis, Chief Executive of University of Cambridge International Examinations, said: "We are delighted to announce that Asia Innovatory Management School has become a registered Centre and look forward to a long and productive relationship which will be of great benefit to students throughout the region."

As a Cambridge International Centre, Asia Innovatory Management School will offer students in Singapore internationally renowned qualifications that are recognised by educational institutions and employers across the globe.

Mr. Poh Kuan Heng, Project Manager said: "Asia Innovatory Management School is proud to be associated with Cambridge as it enables us to extend our service and offer quality education to the local community."
